

Immunizations

Your pet is susceptible to many contagious diseases, many of which can be prevented with proper vaccinations. For convenience, we maintain all patient records and will notify you when annual vaccinations are due. We also recommend periodic blood tests for older pets.